

Neighborhood Preservation Coalition 2026 Annual Professional Conference at the Albany Hilton

Annual Conference Awards

Herman D. Farrell, Jr. Policy Leader Award

The Herman D. Farrell, Jr. Policy Leader Award, honoring the legacy of Assemblyman Farrell, recognizes a state or local official who promotes affordable housing and neighborhood revitalization. Farrell, an admired public servant, advocated for housing, education, and environmental issues in District 71 of the New York State Assembly until 2017. His significant contribution was authoring the Neighborhood Preservation Company legislation.

NOMINATE HERE

Luis Arce Success Award

The Luis Arce Success Award pays tribute to Luis Arce's dedication to championing the rights of low-income families. Arce, known for his courage, conviction, and passion for social justice, brought significant change to his community.

This award, celebrating his compassion and energy, recognizes local activists who have made impactful contributions to affordable housing and community development.

NOMINATE HERE